

College Essays

Need Help?

If you need someone to review your college essays we can help! Villanova faculty and staff and have volunteered to read your essays and offer guidance to make sure it is in good grammatical form and the content is well written. They will read your drafts and offer constructive feedback.

This is what you need to do to have your essays reviewed:

Please forward your essays in either .pdf or Word format.

Make sure that the full question your essay relates to is clearly indicated at the top of your essays.

Please put "College Essay" in the email subject line.

Attach and send your essay to the following email address:
linda.coleman@villanova.edu

Upon receipt, you will get an acknowledgement that your essays were received and will be reviewed.

The volunteers have committed to returning their comments to you within 3 days.

This service is available from September 30th through December 9th.

Start working on your essays soon, don't wait until December!
